

Student Evaluations

Written evaluations are given to students in beginning level classes and up to assist students in comprehending their individual class goals.

We offer these to parents and students during the last weeks of each quarter.

The June progress report will inform a student of a promotion to the next level for the next semester.