Before we dive into the magic of the performances, here are a few gentle reminders to ensure a wonderful experience for everyone:

- Please silence your cell phones to keep the focus on our amazing performers.
- Clap enthusiastically after each performance! Our performers thrive on your applause.
- Show respect by staying seated during performances and keeping noise to a minimum.
- If your child is crying, please go to the lobby to watch the performance on the screen until they are ready to return.
- Every soul should have a seat.

Letter from the Director

Awesome TBE Guests,

I am profoundly grateful for the opportunity to direct and choreograph Cinderella. These past few months have been a true test of the cast and crew's resilience and dedication. It has been an honor to work with these children, who have devoted immense effort to present a beautiful show for you all. A phrase often shared with me when I first began performing resonates deeply: "Remember why you're doing it."

As a child, I loved being on stage. This passion was nurtured by the dedicated directors, choreographers, and parents who made those performances possible. Now, as an adult, I am committed to helping these children realize their dreams. Our presence here stems from a love for witnessing their singing, dancing, and acting. When we encounter challenges, we remind ourselves of our purpose: we are here for the children.

I extend my heartfelt thanks to Ms. K for her indispensable support in bringing Cinderella to life. None of this would have been possible without her. I am also grateful to Sofie and Katelynn for choreographing and embracing my creative ideas. Special thanks to Em for being an outstanding assistant director. I also want to thank all the parents for allowing their children to be a part of our show. Lastly, thank you to you, the audience, for supporting children's theater.

Today, the children are the art.

Thank you,

Hannah Okerson

Letter from the Producer

Dear Friends and Families,

Welcome to tonight's performance of Cinderella. It is with great pleasure and pride that we present to you this timeless tale, brought to life by our talented cast and dedicated crew.

First and foremost, I extend my heartfelt gratitude to our incredible performers. Their dedication, talent, and hard work have been truly inspiring. Each rehearsal was filled with laughter, learning, and an unyielding spirit, culminating in the enchanting performance you are about to witness. I also wish to thank our brilliant director, choreographers, and assistant director for their creative vision and tireless efforts in shaping this production. Special thanks are due to our technical team, costume & set builders, and all the volunteers and parents whose support has been invaluable.

Cinderella is a story that transcends cultural boundaries. Every culture has its own version of the Cinderella tale, a testament to its universal appeal. From the Chinese Ye Xian to the Egyptian Rhodopis, and the many European iterations, this story speaks to a deep, shared human experience. The themes of hope, resilience, and transformation are timeless and continue to resonate with audiences today.

At its heart, Cinderella is a story about kindness, courage, and the belief that dreams can come true. It reminds us that no matter how difficult our circumstances, perseverance and a kind heart can lead to a brighter future. In a world that often feels divided and challenging, Cinderella offers a message of hope and unity. It encourages us to believe in the magic of possibilities and the power of goodness.

This production also explores themes of personal transformation and the triumph of the human spirit. Cinderella's journey from despair to joy, from oppression to freedom, is a powerful reminder that we all possess the strength to overcome adversity and find our own paths to happiness with the help of our teachers, mentors & chosen family.

As you watch this performance, I hope you are transported into a world of magic and wonder. I hope the story of Cinderella inspires you, just as it has inspired countless generations before us. Thank you for joining us this evening and for supporting the arts. Your presence here helps keep the magic of live theater alive, nurturing the dreams and talents of our young performers.

Enjoy the show!
